Mission Statement

Jesus comes “to serve, not to be served”

(Mt. 20, 28)

St. Mary's by the Sea is a Catholic/Christian community of faith, hope, and love, journeying together in the spirit of hospitality, stewardship, respect, unity and charity, welcoming and serving all brothers and sisters in Christ, under the mantle of Our Lady.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

For the next several months, we will be preparing for the New English Translation of the Roman Missal, which begins Nov. 27, 2011.

The Introductory Rites

We begin Mass with the Introductory Rites that prepare the faithful for the sacred encounter with God in his Word and in the Holy Eucharist. Every time we gather for Eucharist, each of us comes with our own preoccupations and concerns. The Introductory Rites of the Mass are intended to draw us out of our own little worlds and form us into an assembly of God's people, the Body of Christ, ready to render our praise and thanksgiving to God. Each element is designed to play its own role in uniting us as a worshiping people and calling us into God's presence. We hear each other's voices in the opening song and the Glory to God; we remember who we are as God's people through the sign of the cross, the Greeting, and the Penitential Act; and we prepare ourselves for today's particular celebration in the opening prayer or Collect. If we allow the Introductory Rites to do their work, we will be prepared to celebrate the Eucharist as one people in God.

May God Bless You,

Commissioning of the Lectors

Fr. Quang Chu will be commissioning the Lectors next weekend (Aug. 13-14) at the Saturday 5:00 pm Vigil Mass and the Sunday 7:30, 9:00 and 10:30 am Masses.

Guidelines for Lectors

Ministers of the Word

According to the ancient tradition and the teaching of the Church, the readings other than the Gospel are proclaimed by lay ministers. (GIRM 59)

The use of two lectors--one for each reading--is directed by the liturgical norm. (GIRM 109, LM Intro 52)

Individual persons in our parish who recognize this gift of public speaking should come forward to fulfill this ideal. (Speak with Fr. Quang)

Symbols in the Liturgy of the Word

The lector ministers as one of the worshipping assembly and is expected to participate actively in the entire liturgy. (GIRM 91)

The ambo is the symbol of the presence of the Word of God in the Church just as the altar is the symbol of the Sacrament of the Eucharist. The ambo is to be used for the proclaimed Word, namely, the readings from Sacred Scripture, the Gospel, the homily and the intentions of the Prayers of the Faithful. The Responsorial Psalm is from the Sacred Scripture and recommends to chant from the ambo. A lectern or cantor's stand is used for song leading, announcements, etc. (GIRM 58, 309, LM Intro 16)

Ministry of Music

An integral part of the celebration of the Word of God is the Responsorial Psalm and the Gospel Acclamation (Alleluia). Since the Responsorial Psalm at Mass is part of the Liturgy of the Word, it is to be sung/read from the ambo. (GIRM 61, LM Intro 20)

The Seating of Lectors

Lectors need to be seated in a place which allows for easy access to the ambo, preferably among the assembly. At the time of the Liturgy of the Word, the lector approaches the ambo slowly and with reverence. If the lector must pass in front of the altar, he/she bows to the altar before proceeding to the ambo. All movements in the liturgy are performed with dignity and grace; they are never hurried. (GIRM 310)

Extraordinary Ministers Meeting

There will be a meeting this Tuesday, August 9th at 6:30 pm for all current Extraordinary Ministers and anyone who is interested in becoming an Extraordinary Minister.

Jest Kidding

A little boy watched, fascinated, as his mother covered her face in cold cream. "Why do you do that?" he asked.

"To make myself beautiful."

When she began to rub it off, the boy asked, "Why are you doing that? Did you give up?"

Thank You For Your Generosity!
