VISION & MISSION STATEMENT

Our Vision: Be my Disciples. If not you, then who...

Our Mission: St. Mary's by the Sea, a Catholic community of faith, hope, and love, journeying together in the spirit of stewardship, unity, and charity, embracing all in Christ under the mantle of "Our Lady."

Reflections of the Week

Jeremiah paints a beautiful image of a tree by a gentle stream, cool and refreshed no matter the conditions, in describing those who trust in God. Paul echoes that sentiment when he encourages the Corinthians to trust that we will be raised from the dead, to live eternally in the kingdom of God that Jesus promises to the poor in the Gospel.

Luke repeatedly stresses how important it was for Jesus to speak to the Father, to spend time with him in prayer. The night before teaching the Beatitudes Jesus went up a mountain to pray. That morning he gathered his disciples and chose the twelve whom he called his apostles. After this they all came down the mountain and Jesus preached to them, all his disciples, and crowds from around Judea and even outside of Palestine. His words were directed toward Jews and Gentiles alike. But perhaps the final beatitude, the one which he described at length, was directed especially toward the twelve disciples he had just chosen. He knew that they would face hate and insults and they would be excluded or even denounced. This was a way to assure them that God remained always on their side.

Just last week we heard Jesus call Peter, James, and John, telling them they would be fishing for other disciples, not for fish. They left everything behind to follow him. Today we hear Jesus make a different kind of call for transformation. Jesus did not want—nor does God want—those who are prosperous and contented to be comfortable and satisfied with their condition. Misery is sure to come to them. Jesus makes it clear that God blesses those who are hurting. We would be wise to transform out of our complacency, for God's blessings are stronger than whatever we have gained in this world.

Question of the Week

What part of my life am I complacent about? How do the Beatitudes call me to change?

Get Involved! The Ministry Fair

February 26th & 27th
After all the Sunday Masses

What is a ministry and what is a Ministry Fair? A ministry is an organization made up of fellow parishioners who volunteer their skills, talents, and love to do something for the Church; it's people and community. In two weeks, we will hold a Ministry Fair, which will give you an opportunity to see, meet and learn about our different volunteer groups and what they do here at St. Mary's by the Sea, out of gratitude to give back to God what He has given to us. Please consider the gift that God gave you, and make it a point to stop by our Ministry Fair.

Parts of the Mass

SANCTUS, SANCTUS, SANCTUS: SONG OF HEAVEN

The words of the Sanctus are rooted in the scriptures. They recall the song of the seraphim in the prophet Isaiah's vision of God in majesty: "Seraphim were stationed above; each of them had six wings: with two they veiled their faces, with two they veiled their feet, and with two they hovered aloft. 'Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts!' they cried one to the other. 'All the earth is filled with His glory!'" (Isaiah 6:2-3). They recall the Gospel accounts of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem: "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest" (Matthew 21:9). Yet the liturgy adds something new to these ancient texts. The seraphim sang, "the earth is filled with his glory." But the liturgy proclaims, "heaven and earth are full of your glory." In the Eucharist, earth and heaven meet. For a moment in time, we join in the song that the angels sing for all time. The Sanctus raises us to heaven, but does not remove us from the earth. It is the song of the King who took on our human flesh so that we might share in His divine life.

Our Faith. Our Future.
2022 Pastoral Services Appeal

Once again, we are nearing the time for the Pastoral Services Appeal (PSA) for 2022. This is where each year Catholics throughout the Diocese of Orange answer the call to build up God's Kingdom by supporting the mission and ministries of our local Church.

Your participation will contribute to the joyful mission of our Catholic faith: to help others find a path toward Jesus Christ. Your support will help:

- * Provide retirement income for 48 retired diocesan priests.
- * Provide formation for 19 seminarians and ongoing education for our priests and deacons.
- * Provide support services to more than 615,000 families and individuals through Catholic Charities.
- * Provide education and learning support to over 17,000 students in our diocesan Catholic Schools.

Very soon, all parishioners will receive information on how they can participate in this year's PSA. Jesus is always calling out to us in love. How will you faithfully respond for our Church's future?

2021 Tax Donation Letters

If you are a registered parishioner and need a Tax Donation letter for your 2021 tax return, please contact the Parish Office (714-536-6913, ext. 112) with your name and Parish ID #, if known, to request one.

Office of Faith Formation Column

“The JOY of LOVE”

“Joy is prayer–Joy is strength–Joy is love–Joy is a net of love by which you can catch souls.... A joyful heart is the inevitable result of a heart burning with love. Never let anything so fill you with sorrow as to make you forget the joy of the Christ risen.” St. Katherine Drexel

“You ask me whether I am in good spirits. How could I not be so? As long as faith gives me strength, I will always be joyful.” Bl. Pier Giorgio Frassati

“God made us for joy. God is joy, and the joy of living reflects the original joy that God felt in creating us.”
St. Pope John Paul II

We are reminded of the dignity of Christian family as seen spelled out in our Catechism #350

The Christian family is called the domestic church because the family manifests and lives out the communal and familial nature of the Church as the family of God. Each family member, in accord with their own role, exercises the baptismal priesthood and contributes toward making the family a community of grace and of prayer, a school of human and Christian virtue and the place where the faith is first proclaimed to children.

We pray for all families in these final days of National Marriage Week, especially those that have not invited God into their hearts and homes, that they soon realize the grace that comes when God is welcomed in their midst as head of each household, each domestic church.

RETREAT PRAYERS

Our RCIA members and five others from our parish will attend the Prince of Peace retreat this coming Saturday. May angels and saints prepare their hearts for a deep encounter with our loving Lord.

Stewardship Corner

LOYAL STEWARDS, HAPPY SUPER BOWL SUNDAY GO RAMS!

Let's help grow our ministries at SMBTS by hosting the MINISTRY FAIR in 2 weeks - Feb. 26 & 27. We need volunteers to set up tables and decorate the patio area (this event will be held outside again this year) on Sat. Feb 26th at 10 am and need a few people to man our Stewardship table after each Mass Saturday and Sunday. Then Cavalry clean up afterwards Sunday at 1:30pm. It's a really fun way to kick off the Easter Season which starts the following Wednesday. Watch for emails about further information and the Stewardship Corner next weekend too.

➤ Thank you for your continued prayers and support for those in need, PRAYER WARRIORS. Fr. Chu mentioned us again in his homily and how something so positive came out of isolation during a pandemic. God bless you all angels!

➤ Wasn't it a nice memorial service for our fellow Steward, Mark Scally, yesterday. Thank you to those who assisted Bill with his very nice reception setup.

➤ Rise up believers. Don't let this world silence your Christian voice. Amen 🙏
