Reflections of the Week

Healing & Reconciliation

The first step in receiving forgiveness is to acknowledge one's own sinfulness. In the Lord's presence, awareness of one's own sinfulness can be overwhelming. When seeing the LORD, Isaiah at once realized he was unclean, crying, "Woe is me" (Isaiah 6:5). Peter fell to his knees before Jesus, admitting, "I am a sinful man" (Luke 5:8). Paul calls himself, "the least of the apostles . . . because I persecuted the church of God" (1 Corinthians 15:9). Before any of them respond to God's call, they confess their need for forgiveness. In doing so, they receive healing and reconciliation.

Many Eyewitnesses

Paul tells the Corinthians that after appearing to Peter and the rest of the apostles, Jesus appeared to more than five hundred others at once. No mention is made in any of the Gospels of this appearance, which would seem to be quite memorable. Paul's point is that direct eyewitnesses of the risen Lord are still around to attest to the reality of Jesus' resurrection. Hundreds of them. The risen Lord's presence was not confined to the few narratives we hear in the Gospels featuring no more than twelve disciples at a time.

Lower Your Nets

After Jesus had taught the crowds from Peter's boat, he asked him to do two things—"Put out into deep water and lower your nets"—neither of which Peter would normally do (Luke 5:4). He must have been quite impressed by this stranger's teaching to do either one. The Lake of Gennesaret (more commonly known as the Sea of Galilee) is eight miles wide and up to one hundred fifty feet deep. During the day fishing boats stayed close to shore, for sea squalls could easily capsize these boats. Moreover, during the day the fish swam as deep as they could to avoid the bright sunlight. Knowledgeable fishermen fished at night. So Peter was faced with doing something both potentially dangerous and visibly foolish. But after hearing Jesus' teachings, he did. We may feel that sometimes God is leading us out to deep waters and making us look foolish. May his words of reassurance and comfort and the fact that he has shared his very body with us give us confidence to trust him.

Question of the Week

When have I felt frightened or foolish by doing something I felt called to do? How has God reassured me and given me confidence?

Parts of the Mass

THE PREFACE: THANKSGIVING

The preface of the Mass has been called “a poem, the cry of joy and recognition, the song of the world discovering its salvation . . . the certitude of faith making hope spring forth” (Philippe Béguerie, quoted in The Mass, Lucien Deiss, The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, MN, 1992, p. 70). The preface takes up the last words of the dialogue, and expresses briefly and simply why we are grateful, why it is right and just to give thanks and praise to God. On feast days, the preface sings of the specific mystery or saint we celebrate; in Ordinary Time, the Sunday and weekday prefaces express our gratitude for God’s gift of the Son, Jesus Christ, in whom we have redemption and newness of life. The prefaces offer a succinct account of what God has done for us in Christ; they express the mystery of faith, always relating it to us, to our lives. “By his birth we are reborn,” we hear in Preface IV for Sundays in Ordinary Time. “By his suffering we are freed from sin. By his rising from the dead we rise to everlasting life.” Yes, we have cause to give God thanks and praise.

Office of Faith Formation Column

“JOY” IS A VOCATION- It is a contagious virtue

We are called to live out the Beatitudes as our Christian lifestyle. Beatitude is from the Latin word beatus, meaning both "happy" and "blessed." The first starts with "Blessed are those poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven." The last one reassured of the same inheritance: God's kingdom.

These coming days, our Church celebrates National Marriage Week and the focus is joy. Although love is shown in sacrifice, the fruit of joy nonetheless, given by the Holy Spirit, is a sure promise that there is no reward without work.

We pray for the families in our Parish and throughout the world, that this week will be an enriching time of deeper renewal for families and thus more joy and peace rooted in Christ remaining the beacon of vocation of family, where we share the Kingdom of God now and the fullness to come when all will be made new.

VIRTUE

“A virtue is an habitual and firm disposition to do the good. It allows the person not only to perform good acts, but to give the best of himself. The virtuous person tends toward the good with all his sensory and spiritual powers; he pursues the good and chooses it in concrete actions.” CCC 1803

TRIVIA FOR THIS WEEK

Can you recall the age of the two youths who are in the Venerable stage of sainthood?

- Darwin Ramos (1994 –) of the Philippines and
- Walter Chango (1921–) of Uruguay.

See if you guessed it right by referring to last week's bulletin.

WORLD DAY OF THE SICK MASS

FEBRUARY 12, 2022 * 10:00 AM

CHRIST CATHEDRAL
13280 Chapman Avenue, Garden Grove

Including the Sacramental Rite of Anointing of the Sick

Anointing of the Sick is a Sacrament of the Church and is offered to Catholics who are dangerously ill due to sickness, injury or old age. The sacrament is for serious mental or emotional illness as well. While we should not be excessively concerned about the degree of seriousness of the condition, the casual participation in the Sacrament must be avoided in good conscience.
