St. Mary's by the Sea Catholic Church

Reflections of the Week

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

As always in Ordinary Time, today's Old Testament sets the stage for the Gospel. God, who in Jesus will "rebuke the wind" and "command the sea to be still" (Mark 4:39), "addresses Job out of the storm" (Job 38:1), speaking to the turmoil in Job's heart, calling to mind the primal chaos of creation's untamed sea, reminding Job that God's mighty word then was enough to command order and bring forth life. In today's Gospel, the disciples' fear, even near despair, takes center stage. Are any of us strangers to such emotions? Squall-force winds buffet their boat, waves break over it, and Jesus might as well not be there. Mark's account is especially grim. Alone among the evangelists, he tells us that Jesus is in the stern, the very back of the boat, not just asleep—sound asleep! Only Mark adds the detail, "on a cushion" (4:38).

Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, haven't we all, from time to time, experienced Jesus' "real absence"? This personal application should comfort us, as it has generations of disciples before us. Though the "boat" is, primarily, a symbol of the Church, never forsaken by Christ, carried safely across time's stormy waters, Saint Augustine preaching on this very Gospel sixteen hundred years ago noted that, since each of us is a temple of God, each one's heart is a sailing boat. Consider any temptation, says Augustine, as "the wind, the surging of the sea," and do what the disciples did: wake up Christ, "the sleeper in your heart," by recalling his words and commands. Then be like the wind and the sea: "The sea obeys him, the wind is still." Whenever emotions make our hearts turbulent, whenever Christ seems absent or at least asleep, "let us not despair but awaken Christ, so that we may sail in quiet waters, and reach at last our heavenly homeland."

No One Like a Father

A father gives strength by sharing his strength, happiness by sharing his love.

A father's love helps you reach new heights of happiness, new depths of understanding, new dimensions of life.

Fathers have a knowledge of life and love not found in books, but in the heart.

A father is someone who knows that giving makes living a pleasure, and that thoughtfulness is the best measure of a man.

A father is neither an anchor to hold us back, nor a sail to take us there, but always a guiding light whose love shows us the way.

Whenever, whatever, however he is needed, a father is always there.

A father's love is strong but gentle, gentle in its strength. There is no one like a father - to care so completely...

to give so quietly...

to teach so gently...

to love so much!

God Bless All the Father's of the World!

Universal Church 2nd Collection

There will be a 2nd Collection taken this weekend, for the Universal Church. This special collection combines the Catholic Relief Services Collection, which assists the poor and disadvantaged, and Peter's Pence Collection, which promotes and supports the works of our Holy Father, enabling him to respond with emergency financial assistance to others most in need.

Please be as generous as possible!

Priest Ordination

Three seminarians were ordained to the Sacred Order of the Priesthood in the Roman Catholic Church by the Most Rev. Kevin W. Vann, Bishop of Orange, on Saturday, June 12 at Christ Cathedral.

Rev. Brandon Dang, director of vocations for the Diocese of Orange, called the three "incredible men." They are Rev. Cheeyoon Timothy Chun, Rev. Michael Joseph Fitzpatrick, and Rev. Brandon Robert Lopez.

All the men were raised in Orange County, so they are very much homegrown sons of their local parishes. That will add to the culture and relatability of the parishioners to their new priests. Let us pray for them!

A SPECIAL MONTH

In June, the month of the Sacred Heart, many priests celebrate their anniversaries, including our very own, Fr. Quang Chu, who celebrated his 30th just ten days ago. Let's see if you know the responses to the following trivia questions:

- 1-How many newly ordained priests did we have last Saturday, 6/12/2021?
 - 2-What are their names, nationalities, and home parishes?
 - 3-Which of the 57 parishes or five faith centers in the Diocese of Orange were they sent to serve in their first year of ordination?
 - 4-Referring to the photo, above, who was Fr. Chu laying hands on?
 - 5-Do priests, like our pastor, get to have the newly ordained priests laid hands on them as well?
- (Hint: look for the next Diocesan Weekly Newsletter that features the recent ordination event.) The following photo taken last Saturday will reveal the answer for question number 1.

*We invite all people of God
to give thanks to our Lord*

for calling our fellow brothers to the priesthood in the covenant of love with Christ, our High Priest. May they be ever encouraged in their resolve to lay down their lives for those they serve. Please continue to earnestly pray for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

SHARE & TEACH THE FAITH!

Is God

INVITING YOU TO SHARE YOUR GIFT OF
FAITH with the children of our parish? Say YES and get a large sum of eternal benefits. Be All You Can Be: BE A CATECHIST! Please email Sister for more information.

Catechists are people who keep the memory of God alive; they keep it alive in themselves and they are able to revive it in others.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

and blessings to all you Fathers out there!
Enjoy your day with family.

It is wonderful to see so many people returning to Mass after a tough 15 months, and gradually we are getting back to normal around here. Masks are optional, and most of us are vaccinated making it safe to return to our event planning and meetings. Speaking of which, watch for an e-mail with info about an upcoming PARISH PICNIC PLANNING MEETING soon. Mary Gill will head up this committee and anyone can join it . The PICNIC is scheduled for Aug. 14, and the next weekend, 8/21, we will begin our collection of donated boutique items for our RUMMAGE SALE, headed by Jacky and Rene to be held on Aug. 27&28. Please let Mary Gill or Rene know if you'd like to help with either event. Lots of help is needed!

➤Dear PRAYER WARRIORS..... you have been very busy with requests recently; thank you all who help with your prayers! We know there is power in them, and comfort to those who need that, especially our fellow Stewards, Deborah Aguilar, who lost her husband Frank, another loyal Steward. Several years they helped immensely with their support with events and even feeding us during long work days with the rummage collection and two-day sale! Frank will be missed and never complained about his many long term health issues. He was a quite gentle sweet soul. RIP dear Frank.

SEE YOU EVERY THURSDAY at 1:00-2:00 for our ADORATION HOUR

May God bless and keep us healthy and safe, especially Fr. Chu and Fr. Pascal. Amen

What is a Christian Steward?

"One who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord."

(American Bishops Pastoral Letter).
