THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

Reflections of the Week

The manna that God provided to the Chosen People in the desert was literally bread from heaven. It was a food they did not recognize, in fact, a food they did not even recognize as food, a food unknown to their ancestors. Moses had to explain: it is food, it is indeed the bread God had promised, and unless the people eat it, they will starve to death in the desert. The words we hear Jesus proclaim in the Gospel come right after the starving crowd of thousands has been fed with just five loaves of bread and two fish. Neither do these people recognize Jesus' flesh as food. Obviously, this is also a food unknown to their ancestors. Like Moses, Jesus has to explain: his flesh is true food, and unless the people eat it, they will not have eternal life within them.

In the third chapter of John's Gospel, Jesus repeatedly uses the word "believe" as the key to eternal life; for example, "everyone who believes in him may have eternal life" (3:15). Now, in the sixth chapter, Jesus essentially substitutes an action for a belief: "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life" (6:54). Orienting one's mind toward God is essential, but now Jesus calls the people to do something: to eat the flesh of our Lord. Just as what we ordinarily eat and drink becomes part of us, giving life and energy to our physical selves, the Body and Blood we eat and drink become part of us, giving life and energy to our whole selves, for they are "true food" and "true drink" (6:55).

The energy we receive from consuming Christ's Body and Blood can energize us to carry out the mission he calls us to. We are called to be his witnesses, to make disciples, and to build the kingdom. The true food and true drink remind us of his sacrifice, sustain us in our faith, and nourish us. In this way, as Saint Paul writes, we participate in the body and blood of Christ. Participating in Christ's body and blood assists us in participating in Christ's mission.

Question of the Week

How do I participate in Christ's mission? Do I recognize the strength I receive in the Eucharist?

Office of Faith Formation

SOLEMNITY OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Are you hungry?

"Besides physical hunger, people have another hunger, one that cannot be satisfied with ordinary food. It is the hunger for life, hunger for love (and) hunger for eternity. The body and blood of Christ can give people eternal life because the substance of this bread is love. Living the Catholic faith, means allowing yourself to be nourished by the Lord and building your life not on material goods, but on the reality that does not perish: the gifts of God, His Word, and His Body."

-Pope Francis

This day is a celebration of the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. What would you consider the top highlight of being Catholic is? Stewardship Corner

HELLO STEWARDS!

➤ Today, Sunday is the CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION at 1:00pm. Let's really try to have all members of the STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE participate and show our deep love for Jesus in the Sacrament.

➤ Next weekend is Father's Day and we will be selling Centennial pins after all the Masses (they make a great Father's Day gift). We need volunteers to help with this after each Mass they attend. Debbie will follow up with all of you this week with details.

➤ With regard to the RUMMAGE SALE, this has been scheduled for 7/21-22. This is a HUGE EVENT, and we will also need help collecting items the Saturday through Wednesday prior, setting up the parking lot on Thursday, and cleaning up on Saturday. A really good incentive will be given to all of our members who are able to volunteer for this (and many of you already have).

➤ Following that, we have the PARISH PICNIC on 8/12. Many of you have already signed-up for this event so thank you! If anyone else would like to volunteer, please contact Mary or Debbie.

➤ Once again, we invite you to join us for ADORATION every THURSDAY at 12 pm and FIRST FRIDAYS at 1pm. Please come and spend this time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament during our time slots or whenever your schedule allows.

➤ And as always, we ask that you continue to pray for fellow Stewards, parishioners, family, friends, and neighbors who are encountering personal challenges. Your prayers are powerful and needed! Always remember that you are loved and appreciated! 🙏

Universal Church 2nd Collection

There will be a 2nd Collection taken next weekend, June 17-18, for the Universal Church. This special collection combines the Catholic Relief Services Collection, which assists the poor and disadvantaged, and Peter's Pence Collection, which promotes and supports the works of our Holy Father, enabling him to respond with emergency financial assistance to others most in need.

Please be as generous as possible!

2023 Pastoral Services Appeal (PSA)

THANK YOU! Since we have surpassed our Diocesan goal of $40,000, any additional donations we receive from this point on will be returned right back to us. Thank you for your generosity, and God bless!
