VISION & MISSION STATEMENT

Our Vision: Be my Disciples. If not you, then who...

Our Mission: St. Mary's by the Sea, a Catholic community of faith, hope, and love, journeying together in the spirit of stewardship, unity, and charity, embracing all in Christ under the mantle of "Our Lady."

Reflections of the Week

In the first reading, we hear God tell Moses that the Chosen People are to be “a kingdom of priests, a holy nation” (Exodus 19:6). Their rescue from slavery in Egypt, borne by God “on eagle wings” (19:4), is a sign of the bond between God and the people. Similarly, the Church is a holy people, each person baptized into the priesthood of all believers. Our rescue from the slavery of sin by the blood of the cross, borne by God to reconciliation with God and to eternal life, is a sign of the bond established in baptism. May we, like Paul, “boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ” (Romans 5:11), who has blessed us for hundreds of generations.

Up until now in Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus has been carrying out his mission all over Galilee: curing the sick and driving out demons, teaching crowds and welcoming sinners, proclaiming God’s kingdom. The disciples have watched him do all this. Now he calls upon them to do the same. He knows that he will not be able to do it all by himself forever. He knows that he will have to leave his work in the hands of others, of laborers for the harvest. Two thousand years later, we are his disciples, likewise deputized to tend to those with physical or emotional infirmities, to embrace the lost and troubled, and to give hope to the weary.

The final line of today’s Gospel, simple as it is—“Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give” (Matthew 10:8)—should give us confidence and direction for carrying out Jesus’ mission. We, like the first disciples, have received the power to do all the wonders that Jesus did, despite our failings, despite our sinfulness, and despite our unworthiness. We are now directed to pass on that power to others, despite their failings, sinfulness, and unworthiness. This is our mission.

Question of the Week

How am I called to be a laborer for the harvest? What concrete thing can I do this week to carry out Jesus’ mission?

JESUS' HEART IS MOVED

How often is your heart moved by God's mercy? Today's readings speak of God's tender love in such tangible ways. We hear from the book of Exodus how God reassures his people of his might as he lifts them up "on eagle wings and brought them to himself," however, He insists everyone hearken to his voice and keep his covenant. God knows how many voices and various forks in the road are out there that may confuse us, and by recognizing his voice, we can navigate towards him. The Gospel today in particular tells of Jesus' personal calling and bestowing of authority to the first twelve apostles to drive out demons and cure every disease and illness. This past Saturday the Church of Orange witnessed three young men ordained to the priesthood. We know that He continues to provide for his people but our task is still urgent, to "pray for more laborers!" We are called to pray for generous souls, and by concrete recruiting efforts, we can affect the faith of the young people in our family and among our relatives and friends. We can invite young people to listen and to discern His voice calling them to a life of service and consecration. Picture below are priests praying for those to be ordained including Fr. Ian Gaston, from St. Norbert's, who just celebrated Mass with his family at our church this past Monday. He will be assigned to serve at St. Irenaeus in Cypress. Please PRAY for our priests and seminarians worldwide.

HELLO STEWARDS!

➤ Thank you to everyone who attended the CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION last Sunday. It was a great turnout and let us as Catholics publicly profess our faith and devotion to the Eucharist. Also, we would like to wish all fathers a Happy Father's Day today!

➤ We are selling Centennial pins after all the Masses this weekend (they make a great Father's Day gift). If anyone can help do this after the Mass they attend, it will be appreciated.

➤ We have a STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE MEETING this Thursday evening at 6:00 pm. Please try to attend so we can further discuss the RUMMAGE SALE which has been scheduled for 7/21-22. This is a HUGE EVENT, and we will also need help collecting items the Saturday through Wednesday prior, setting up the parking lot on Thursday, and cleaning up on Saturday. Also, you can learn about the great incentive at the meeting if you volunteer for the RUMMAGE SALE.

➤ Following that, we have the PARISH PICNIC on 8/12. Many of you have already signed-up for this event so thank you!

➤ Once again, we invite you to join us for ADORATION every THURSDAY at 12 pm and FIRST FRIDAYS at 1pm. Please come and spend this time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament during our time slots or whenever your schedule allows.

➤ And as always, we ask that you continue to pray for fellow Stewards, parishioners, family, friends, and neighbors who are encountering personal challenges. Your prayers are powerful and needed! Always remember that you are loved and appreciated! 🙏

Celebrate Fr. Quang's
32nd Anniversary of His Ordination
Years to the Priesthood & All Fathers

Join us after the morning Masses today to celebrate the 32ND ANNIVERSARY OF FR. QUANG'S ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD and also ALL FATHERS on their special day. We will have a special cake to enjoy in the Hall, along with coffee, donuts, and juice. Everyone is most welcome!
