Reflections of the Week

Grace is greater than sin. This is the point that Paul is making to the Romans. As terrible as sin is—for it caused a fundamental separation from God and brought mortality and death—grace is greater. The grace that Jesus won for us on the cross restores our union with God and brings the promise of immortality through eternal life. Grace is stronger than sin for when both are present, grace overcomes sin. Grace overcomes not just the original sin Adam brought into the world; it is able to overcome all human sin. Grace washes our soul clean from sin.

Last Sunday we heard Jesus send the Twelve out to the countryside of Galilee, instructing them to proclaim: “The kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Matthew 10:7). This is what he is now encouraging them to proclaim from the housetops. However, he has just warned them about persecution. Like Jeremiah, they would hear people denounce them and worse. But God would watch over them, over every little hair on their heads. Proclaiming the immanence of God’s kingdom from the housetops is an acknowledgment that Jesus embodies the kingdom. For this, Jesus assures them that he will acknowledge them in turn.

Jeremiah, Paul, and Jesus all faced persecution, for their values aligned with God’s, not society’s. Jeremiah’s message that Jerusalem’s fall was God’s punishment for the people’s sinfulness did not win him many friends. Indeed, his friends stood ready to take vengeance on him. Paul repeatedly preached a countercultural message across the Gentile world. Jesus found enemies among both religious and political authorities. Tradition holds that Jeremiah was martyred in exile after the fall of Jerusalem, killed by fellow exiles. If this is true, then all three died at the hands of their persecutors. But as Jesus told the Twelve, those who can kill the body but not the soul should not be feared. We have no less an obligation to bear witness to our faith in an often cynical and intolerant world. Our life in the Lord can overcome our very real fears in our day-to-day life.

Question of the Week

What am I reluctant to take a stand on? How can I bear witness most effectively and realistically?

Eucharistic Revival

“I AM” — the revelation of God’s name to Moses. “I AM” This coming October 20-21, in response to the Bishops’ call for a National Eucharistic Revival (www.eucharisticrevival.org) our Diocese will set out to host their own Eucharistic Congress at Christ Cathedral. This free 2-day event will invite people from all walks of life to gather in anticipation of the nearness of God. Through powerful speakers, transformative prayer, and Sacramental celebrations, we will experience the life that flows from His existence, meeting Him in the reality of His Presence. With tracks in English, Spanish and Vietnamese, a track for young adults, and even for young children – there is something for everyone to encounter the presence of God. Registration is free, and you can register now or get more information at rcbo.org/congress or sign up after Mass today at their table outside.

Centennial Celebration Items

We will be selling CENTENNIAL COFFEE MUGS ($10) and PINS ($5) next weekend, July 1st & 2nd, after all the Masses.

Also, for those of you who participated in our PHOTO DIRECTORY and had your photo taken, the directories are here. You can pick your copy up in the Office. We will also be handing them out next weekend after all the Masses.

Footpath to Peace

- To be glad of life, because it gives you the chance to love and to work and to pray and to look up at the stars;
- To be satisfied with your possessions, but not content with yourself until you have made the best use of them;
- To despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice;
- To be governed by your admirations rather than your disgusts;
- To covet nothing that is your neighbor’s except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners;
- To think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends, and every day of Christ;
- And to spend a reasonable amount of time with your body and your spirit in God’s great outdoors.

These are little guide-posts on the footpath to Peace!

Office of Faith Formation

JESUS' HEART IN THE EUCHARIST

How difficult it is for you to say that there is a 24/7 heartbeat inside every Tabernacle around the world? It is certainly not easy for us to imagine a living human being and much less our infinite Creator of all beings residing in the holy dwelling we call the Tabernacle. Indeed, it takes great faith to see beyond what meets the eye. Faith demands that we TRUST without the demand for signs. Two weeks ago, our Universal Church celebrated Corpus Christi, in honor of our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist. Many of us took part in the Eucharistic Procession and Benediction.

During this three-year Eucharistic Revival, our Church in the United States invites us to “restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery here in the United States by helping us renew our worship of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.”

Think about how you can be involved in this important endeavor by your own commitment to the Mass weekly if not daily—and participate in Adoration every Thursday 9am-3pm—or simply with a visit to the Blessed Sacrament 1:30-4:30pm Monday-Wednesday. We have a local committee at our parish to help you ENGAGE for the next two years on the Ultimate Gift of Christ in the Eucharist. Register early for the October Conference at the Diocese of Orange and for upcoming retreats. Please contact our Parish Office for more details.

SUMMER SAINTS SERIES Tuesday August 8, 22, and 29 5:30-6:30pm

Join us for three evenings and immerse yourself in the lives of the Saints on display at our newly blessed Sacred Heart Saints Shrine. Last year we had our Marian Summer Series, and the year before we had the Luminous Mysteries Series. Please mark your calendar and kindly RSVP by calling or visiting our Parish Office as soon as possible for the three Evenings of Inspiration with the Saints.
