VISION & MISSION STATEMENT

Our Vision: "Be my Disciples." If not you, then who?

Our Mission: St. Mary's By the Sea, a Catholic community of faith, hope, and love, journeying together in the spirit of stewardship, unity, and charity, embracing all in Christ under the mantle of Our Lady.

Reflections of the Week

The images that both Malachi and Jesus envision regarding the end of the world are terrifying and foreboding. Jesus even prophesies that many of his followers will be put to death. But each ends his warnings with a huge reassurance. Malachi writes, "But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays" (Malachi 3:20). Those who remain faithful will be proven justified. Jesus says, "not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives" (Luke 21:18-19). Jesus here is looking past this life and on to eternal life. You will die, he tells his disciples, you may even be martyred, but you will not be destroyed, not even one little hair, for you will have new life in the Resurrection. During this Jubilee Year of Hope, this is the promise we cling to: that the injustices, tragedies, and hardships of this world are not the end. The end is eternal bliss in God's presence.

The disciples, as usual, ask Jesus the wrong question. You can hardly blame them, for they are worried about the future and want to make sure they are prepared. But Jesus warns them that they will easily be deceived by signs they may take as the end of the world. The lesson Jesus offers is that the best way to be ready is to stay ready. If you are ready for the end all the time, you can spend your time working to spread the gospel and put it into practice, as Jesus commanded his disciples to do, rather than minding other people's business and sponging off of others, as Paul warned the Thessalonians. The day of the Lord is near. Let us put our faith into practice every day so that if today is the day we are already all ready.

Jesus warns about those who will use the dark times as an opportunity to lead people astray. There will always be those who try to exploit events to stir up fear, fear that will lead desperate people to turn to them as their savior. Our Savior is the Resurrection and the Life, who preached a gospel of love and mercy, not fear and inhumanity.

Question of the Week

What habits will I now adopt to make sure that I am ready always?

A Message from our Bishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I wish to extend to each of you my warmest greetings and blessings. Every January 1st, we begin our new year with the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. This feast day honors Mary's unique role in the mystery of our salvation and her willingness to embrace God's plan with courage and humility. She is the model of discipleship for us all, teaching us to say "yes" to God in our own lives, no matter what challenges we may face.

After much prayerful consideration and in consultation with the clergy, I have decided to grant a dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, for the faithful of the Diocese of Orange.

Most Rev. Kevin W. Vann, J.C.D., D.D., D.Min.
Bishop of Orange

We appreciate your prayers for our brothers and sisters embarking in their spiritual journey of faith.

Jubilee Year of Hope Virtual & Actual Pilgrimages

Just a couple of weeks ago, about two dozen of us gathered in the parish hall for two evenings to learn about and virtually experience passing through the Holy Jubilee Doors. Guess what? The real event has now taken place, and we are delighted to share a few photos from our recent trip. May the grace of this Jubilee Year continue to renew your heart and soul. Please be sure to obtain the plenary indulgences daily through the visitation of Christ Cathedral in these very final weeks of the Jubilee Year of Hope.
