THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Reflections of the Week

“The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity,” God says to Moses in the first reading (Exodus 34:6). It is interesting that God uses a description that does not include the first words that may come to mind regarding the divine essence: words like all-powerful, all-knowing, infinite, or perfect. These words are true, of course, but God instead chooses to use words that are relational. God cannot be any of these things—merciful or gracious, kind or faithful—without someone else. But the fact that God is three persons means that God is relational from the start. Indeed, Jesus relies on these qualities when he faces his suffering and death. He relies on his faith that the Father is merciful to him, is gracious to him, is faithful to him. He also relies on these qualities when he promises the Holy Spirit to his disciples. Our God is a relational God, and God’s mercy, grace, love, and fidelity to us reflects these qualities among Father, Son, and Spirit.

God’s generosity is strongly reflected in today’s readings. God’s self-description to Moses relates God’s generosity with mercy, grace, forgiveness, kindness, and faithfulness. Perhaps the ultimate example of God’s generosity comes in God’s Son—a gift to the world in the incarnation who gives himself over to death on the cross. As John points out, God is also generous with salvation. It is available to anyone who believes in the Son. Finally, God has given us the Holy Spirit, who remains with us always. Generosity is another relational quality, needing another person to be generous to.

We cannot be all-powerful, all-knowing, infinite, or perfect. Nor can we bring salvation to the world. However, we can be merciful, gracious, slow to anger, kind, faithful, loving, and generous. The qualities that God puts first and foremost as godlike are qualities we can have—and use—as well. When we forgive and bear with one another, act kindly, give of ourselves, and love each other, we are acting as God self-identifies.

Question of the Week

What will I do this week to reflect the qualities of the divine essence?

The Blessed Holy Trinity

Jesus revealed that the Holy Trinity is a community of persons in an eternal relationship of love. At Jesus' baptism, the voice of the Father from the heavens proclaims: "This is my beloved Son... (Mk 1:11). At the Last Supper, Jesus expressed such heartfelt sentiments: "As the father has loved me, so I have loved you" (Jn 15: 6). And Jesus sent us the promised the GIFT of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. What more can we ask for except a greater love and appreciation for our Trinitarian God!

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, As it was in the beginning, it is now, and will be forever.

Congratulations to the New Communicants

Our church was almost filled to capacity last week as we celebrated the gift of Jesus' Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity entering the hearts of the young members of our parish:

Ashley, Alexa, Riko, and Lucas.

May they continue to open their minds and hearts to loving our Lord more deeply each day. As a parish community, let us pray that more young people and their families prioritize faith formation and evangelization, strengthening them to resist a secular world that competes for our attention without ever truly satisfying our souls.

Praying and Playing for Vocations on 6/12

You may have noticed that our diocese has been praying for vocations to the priesthood and religious life at the conclusion of Mass. We must trust that prayer is powerful. Jesus commanded us to pray continuously.

In addition to prayer, we can support vocations through fellowship and other creative means such as this upcoming Priests vs. Seminarians Basketball Game. Admission is just $15, and food trucks will be available for dinner before the game starts. Encourage the young people among your family and friends to join in on the fun while praying for more dedicated souls to serve in the Church as priests or consecrated religious.

Priests & Bishops on Retreat— Prayer Requested

This week, all priests and bishops in our diocese, along with Sr. Catherine and her religious community, will be away on retreat. Please keep them in your prayers, asking for their continued growth in holiness, a deepened love for Jesus, and the grace to serve on behalf of Jesus with heartfelt dedication.

HELLO STEWARDS!

Happy Sunday! We enjoyed spending time with many of our Stewards at the LADIES TEA yesterday. ➤ We would like to invite all of you to attend the CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION next week, June 7 at 1pm here at St. Mary's by the Sea.
